Budburra Books - Synopsis of books and DVD

CSS01

Can You Find?

There's something magical happening at Cherbourg State School... Look carefully at the walls. What can you find?

CSS02

Catching Blueys

Brave Mim knows the best way to catch blueys! Robyn shares her special family story about catching crawfish with her sister down at the local creek. Illustrations by talented local Cherbourg artists.

CSS03

Cherbourg Seasons

Hot months, windy months, cold months, dry months. These are our Cherbourg Seasons. When the seasons change, we do different things. These changes are the cycle of life.

CSS04

Counting

Learn to count from one to ten with vibrant illustrations by Indigenous children. Look at what we count in Cherbourg.

CSS05

My Body

Cherbourg's Indigenous children pose for photographs and demonstrate Standard Australian English names for parts of the body.

CSS06

Mundagarra

Aunty Venus Rabbitt tells us about the day she met the Rainbow Serpent at the waterhole. Illustrated with mono-prints created by Cherbourg State School students.

CSS07

The Ration Shed

"The Ration Shed" is a delightfully written and illustrated historical record reflecting on aspects of the early days in Cherbourg. Researched and illustrated by Year 6 & 7 students at Cherbourg State School.

CSS08

Walking Through Cherbourg

Cherbourg's Year Two class retell a popular children's story using their own words, context and beautiful artwork.
