

Child Safety Structured Decision-making Case Management

Investigation Pathway

Non-government Regional Intake with differential response capabilities and
Oversight capability providing differential exits during Statutory Case Management

Preliminary assessments

Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander Child Protection Well-Being Model will sit in the Consortium of Differential Responses

Preferred Service Provider

1. Universal Support Services

- Closing the Gap Initiatives (health & disability, education, justice, housing, employment, etc.)
- Child Protection Awareness & Education
- Local community supports (eg. neighbourhood centre parenting groups)
- Local cultural and Elder groups

2. Secondary Support Services

- Domestic Violence services
- Trauma response services/allied health practitioners
- Responses to inter-generational child protection cycles
- Intensive Family Support Services and restorative services
 - Parenting & Attachment circle of security program
- Drug & Alcohol counselling services

3. Statutory Support Services

- Non-government case management and support services
 - Alternative care options (Foster & Kinship care)
 - Specialist therapeutic models
- Residential Care including therapeutic secure care
- Targeted cultural preservation and retention programs