Established in 1981, SNAICC – National Voice for our Children is the National Peak Body in Australia for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children. SNAICC's vision is that Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children, young people and families are protected, our communities determine their own futures, and our cultural identity is valued.

We work to amplify the voice of community and the sector for the fulfilment of the rights of our children. SNAICC is governed by a Board of Directors: Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander leaders from the early years, child safety, development and well- being sectors.

SNAICC plays a key role in the following areas:

- Community and sector voice: SNAICC engages with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community and the sector to understand their needs and aspirations and give a strong voice to these perspectives. We also communicate back to and with community on key issues, programs and projects;
- Research, policy and leadership: SNAICC seeks to understand and share what works to drive better outcomes for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children and families and translate this into policy and practice;
- Sector development: SNAICC works with and supports the sector to enhance the quality, access, and sustainability of services.

Business unitSNAICC's Sector Development unit aims to build the capacity of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community-controlled organisations to ensure children have access to high-quality and sustainable services. The team also leads the development of various partnerships to build the capacity of mainstream non-government organisations to provide culturally safe and secure services. The team manages sector and membership engagement and delivers targeted training and support activities, tailored to the service profiles and operating context of organisations. Looking forward, the team will also seek to elevate the workforce challenges and opportunities faced by early learning services.Position Summary:The Partnership Manager will support the development, facilitation, and implementation of the SNAICC/Life Without Barriers' (LWB) commitment to progressively step away from providing out-of-home care services for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children by 2031. The Partnership Manager will work directly with LWB to support the roll out of the Agreement commitments and to assist LWB in the establishment of key partnerships. This will include the development and strengthening of partnership connections across State and Territory Peaks and Aboriginal Controlled Community of partnership connections across State and Territory Peaks and Aboriginal Controlled Community of partnership connections across State and Territory Peaks and Aboriginal Controlled Community of partnership connections across State and Territory Peaks and Aboriginal Controlled Community of partnership connections across State and Territory Peaks and Aboriginal Controlled Community of partnership connections across State and Territory Peaks and Aboriginal Controlled Community of partnership connections across State and Territory Peaks and Aboriginal Controlled Community of partnership connections across
